

Volunteer Frequently Asked Questions

*Please bring your volunteer apron if you participated in previous years. New volunteers this year will receive an apron at the start of your shift.

- When and where is the Kerrville Chalk Festival? Saturday, October 14th AND Sunday, October 15th. The Festival takes place at Peterson Plaza (700 Water Street Kerrville, Texas 78028) near City Hall.
- Who benefits from Kerrville Chalk Festival? All of the proceeds from 2023 Kerrville Chalk Festival benefits the Kerrville Public School Foundation.
- What happens if it rains? Kerrville Chalk Festival will take place sprinkle or shine, but if severe weather is expected BOTH days then YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED by phone and/or email if this occurs. If rain is expected one day but not the other we will adjust as necessary. Please plan to volunteer even if it is raining.
- What about the Eclipse? The Annular Eclipse is expected to be in Kerrville at approximately 11am. We will have protective glasses on site for all volunteers at no charge. Please do not look up at the sun at this time.
- How do I get to the event and where do I park? Please see the attached map. The best place to park is the parking garage on 201 Clay Street, Kerrville, TX 78028. This garage is covered and free.
- Where do I check in? All volunteers must check in 15 minutes before your shift starts at the Volunteer Check-In, which is located in the back courtyard of Schreiner Mansion at 226 Earl Garrett Street. This is also where the volunteer water station is located.
- How do I know what my volunteer shift is and what I am supposed to do? You will receive an email prior to the event highlighting your volunteer day/time and shift. When you arrive at the Festival and sign in you will then be directed to your specific volunteer station. There will be a lead volunteer at each station who will train and answer any additional questions you may have. There is also a volunteer orientation on October 9th, 2023 at Events at Water Street at 5pm. All volunteers welcome.
- Is the Festival wheelchair accessible? Yes, each area of the Festival is accessible, including available ADA portable restrooms.
- Can youth under the age of 18 volunteer? If a parent accompanies the child or a parent release form is signed then youth may volunteer. Please note that we have a limited number of volunteer responsibilities for children and we need to know in advance.
- How much does it cost to attend the Festival? Admission is free!
- What food and beverages are available? Can I bring my own? There will be a variety of delicious food and beverage options available for sale throughout the Festival. No outside food or beverages are allowed.
